The Class of 2007 presents

Mr. Justin Finley

The class of 2007 dedicates this year's yearbook to a teacher who has made an impact on our journey here at West Bridgewater Middle Senior High School. Our dedicatee has not only helped students to think outside of the box, but to live outside of the box as well.

By doing so, this teacher has shown us that beautiful things can be created when one takes a chance. He has made it clear that fulfillment can be achieved when we follow the whisper of our instincts. This individual has shown us that there is no such thing as perfection. However, there is a close second and this can only be found when we unleash our passion. He has given us the key to unlock our deepest, darks, and our brightest bolds. Because of him, we now know how to express these visions that are somewhere within ourselves... just waiting to be freed.

This man reminds us that life is what you make of it, not what life makes of you. He uses pastels, cray-pas, inks and acrylics when it comes to his work. But when it comes to his students, he uses his heart. This man has shown the class of 2007 how to mix the colors of life, and has helped us realize that you do not have to be Picasso to make your life a masterpiece.

He has a sense of humor, and oh my, does he have a sense of style. He is a mediator, a friend. He is our dedicatee, Mr. Justin Finley.

Hmm Where to start First off it's really hard to believe that I am finally graduating high school. but Im glad that it is finally over. I think that the whole high school experience is a complete roller coaster. It has its ups and downs. but all in all when its all over its kind of sad. One thing I will miss is all my friends. they have been there through it all and I love them for that. Oh. and Samantha you better carry on the Ackerson spirit here at WBHS because I wont be able to anymore.
Congrats to Class of 2007. We've earned it.

Heres to Senior Year:to the memories, to the good and bad times, to high school. To all the people whove made it memorable.There has been laughter and tears, but the memories weve made count the most. It means something to grow up in this town, the experience has been wonderful. Dont let anything hold you back. The Homecomings, football and hockey games,ski trips, Myrtle Beach, Basketball, Prom, 8th grade! AP Chem fighting with Diana and APEH let them eat cake, Brodie history-need I say more. Field Hockey! Tennis! How the time has flown. To Chrissy-what can I say? I owe you so much.You mean the world to me; you cant imagine how much I love you. Zach I wish I could have many more years to watch you grow, but I know you will be the best you can be. I love you both so much. I couldnt have done any of it without you. Mom+DadThanks always for your everlasting support. Good Bye WB! We made it!

"Friendship is like a violin: the music may stop now and then, but the strings will last forever."

First off, being a student in WBHS has made an impact in my life. Even though it was only a year I spent in WB as an exchange student from Thailand, it was a memorable and unforgettable year I'll have forever. All those fun times at school, participating in the tennis team, Diversity Club, Key Club, school trips, events like midnight madness and precious moments during the Junior Prom. Thanks to my best friends Allen, Joey, Nick, Rob, Dan, Brandy, Jess, Carol, Jenny, Kay, Tricia, my lovely sister Sammy and the rest of you (you guys are awesome) and especially to my host family, without you my year would be just a drought. Thanks for taking care of me through this truly amazing year. I'll be missing WBHS and all memories we had. I wish everyone good luck and have a good time with the rest of your journey and I hope you all make your dreams come true.

Its finally over. Ive learned more in these past four years than I have in my whole life. Korrin, Ali, Bianca, Lucy, Kristina, Amanda, Heather, Carly, Kate, the people that Ill never forget. Mike, my best friend, my everything. Im not sure where Id have ended up without my friends. "Umm... Hi?"

It all started in 5th grade when my parents decided to take me out of Brockton and move to this nice neighborhood in West Bridgewater. When I first heard I absolutely did not want anything to do with it. Next thing you know knocking on my door were my future boys who conveniently lived right next to me Johnny Norris and Eric Wells. Once I threw my first pitch out in Norris Stadium my parents did not see me for the rest of the summer and the rest is history.As time went on i began to branch off, connecting with some new homies from Helm Block you know the crew. Girls came into the picture and as everyone knows they are rarely from WB except for my one. Partying and doing whatever just because it seemed like the right idea at the time. All and all i would not change anything even if i knew the ending. Welll...come to think of it i did screw up a'lot.

Yeahhh.. thank the lord that high school is over. Although, I did have some good times with the crew. Goin way back to natures classroom making fun of everyone in our path. Movin on up to ball games at Norris stadium where I stand proud with 0 career homeruns. Ill keep this chronological and go to the times where Halo had us in a chokehold. Id have to say the top two players were Baghdad Bob(Rich) and myself. From that time until now is pretty much a blur due to excessive schooling, and long workdays. Now our lives are full of wiffle ball, soc-ball, Smashin, Yellin, chillin at the climax. There were good times and not so good times but they evened out nicely. All the homies that kept me straight in these rough n tough hoods of WB, and a big thanks to my ma and pa who have raised me thus far....Well this is the part where im suppose to say Ill miss high school and the truth is.....lol, ell ohhhhh ell!

Well its a shame that High School has come to an end, all the fun times and trips with all of my friends. Who could forget all those times with my great friends, Brandon, Joe, and Mike. All those highway chases, 2- ply, fun times at the movies and Papa Ginos. Who could forget all the 4- wheeling madness, pennies in moon roof windows. Fun times Taking the guys flying in the airplane. All those fake moments. The greatest party of 6, and all those crazy fun moments on the road. The great times at the restaurant, times we almost died. All the fun on the Hockey team w/ the players. High School was fun, but it was only made so great because of my awesome friends.

Well, that was a quick public education. Once upon a time blacktop recess and brain yo yos went hand in hand. Steve Lang had a pony tail, and getting new math teachers was a hobby. But now it's all in your face, life is approx. 1/5 over!. All I remember is the Pythagorean Theorem, drilled into our heads by the late great Mr. Maguire. Thats really all I got out of 12 years. But it was a super neato time while it lasted. The only thing I regret is coloring in a brick on the wall with chalk during 1st grade recess. It turned out alright since Felicia Hall was blamed for the brick. I'll predict this isnt going to be funny 10 years from now. Heck, this won't be funny tomorrow. To be mysterious I'll end with a question?

What am I supposed to write here? Good times: sleeping in cars that are way too small. The Hacky sack crew. Flaming hacky, hacky sack down!!! Poison ivy, yogurt, Soccer SHOW NO MERCY! Track Cascada, the elite slackers club. Frog hunting, 5 mile runs....never mind. Kmart parking lot. 24 hour Wal mart. Wendy's. Oh look! A cat. The van noise. Sneaking out. Candy and lots of it. 05 power block.Dragon hunting. Getting beat up by Suzanna ...twice.The McDonalds raid. The parking lot. Air horns. Boxing. All the stupid things we have done. And all the other times I can't remember. To all my friends who have made these last years fun Allen, Robby, Josh, Nate, Chuck, Dmac, Loops, Keith, Danny I, Sassquatch, Charlie, all my soccer and track buddies, Sarah, SFB, Mary, Kaitlyn, Kay, the Megs, and everyone else I am certain I forgot.

"What?"

All good things must come to an end. Its just too bad that my years are over at West Bridgewater Middle/Senior High School. These past years have been great. My friends Jeremy H., Brandon F., and Joey M. have made the road from first grade to twelfth grade fun. Also Mike M. And Matt N. made high school very interesting for me, too. Great times in Track and Cross Country. There is no better way to graduate from high school as one of the members of the boys cross country team champs. It is also pretty cool that we were the first cross country team to ever become champs for our school. Just knowing we did it makes me happy. I wish the best of luck to Mr. Sylvain and next years cross country team to win it all over again. Thank you to all the people who supported me through the years especially mom, dad, and Christie. Best of luck also to the class of 2007.

And, so our adventure ends. Some of us found our heroes, others conquered their fears, and one might even say we've triumphed. I'm not sure if it happened that day or that summer, but somehow, we all felt older and different. I knew Id never forget any of it and I decided I wasnt gonna let it end because I realized we're not just given life experience... we're given the experience of life.

So Senior Year is finally over. I couldn't wait till I got out of high school but I'm glad that I can look back at it fondly. I'll always remember soccer, track and the 4x100 team, Debate club, APEH, Fins Art Class, harassing Kay (nice boots), going to Plymouth, comp-sci, gym class 05, and everything else that I'll reminisce about 5 or 10 years down the road. I have to thank my mom and my sister for everything they've done along the way, and everything they will do in the future. Brady is definitely my idol. Jimmy, good times and memories from back in the day. Amanda Reed, I'm glad we're friends and I'll see you a lot in college. Meghan, you've meant so much to me, I couldn't have made it through school without you, thanks for everything, I love you.
I'm definitely looking forward to college, but Ill always remember WB. It'll be cool to see how everything turns out in a few years. Good Luck to the Class of '07.

A Letter From The Editors

Stephanie Duquette

Diana Cabral

Kellie Burley

The theme of this year's yearbook is "Lasting Impressions." A lasting impression is c event or experience that impacts an individual for the rest of his or her life. We hope that this year's yearbook illustrates all of the memories that you have created throughc the years. Our yearbook records the highlights of this year as well as commemorates the past events that have taken place throughout our twelve years of school. Living in small town has allowed us to form strong friendships and although we may not meet again, we hope that this yearbook will allow you to look back on these friendships and smile. The staff worked incredibly hard to put together the best possible yearbook to represent our school years. We hope that all of the hard work and dedication that th staff has put in does exactly what our theme represents, and that's leaving a lasting impression on each and everyone of you.

Alma Mater

Through the Dawn of each tomorrow
Stands our Alma Mater clear;
Firm and strong her code of ethics
Code her students hold so dear.

We, children, love you dearly,
Singing praises of you too;
There you rise our Alma Mater,
West Bridgewater, here's to you.

Spinning silken threads of knowledge
For the fabric of our lives
Like a tapestry well-woven
Our Maroon and White survives.

Soon we'll leave your walls behind
Your corridors we know so well,
Nothing can erase your memory...
West Bridgewater -Hail- Farewell.

Mom & Dad

How could our Stevie T. be graduating from high school? It was only last year you were born, only last month when you were a blonde little toddler, only yesterday when we played hooky to go fishing, only minutes ago you were sick for school but not for taking pictures at Mom's work, only minutes ago we were on our way to Raynham to buy your first bike, only seconds ago you were tearing up the football fields. You'v grown up to be a fine young man with a strong mind, (some might say stubborn), and a wonderful sense of humor. We don't always agree on everything and sometimes it seems we agree on almost nothing at all, but one thing is for sure: We love you, kiddo, and there is never any doubt about that! Congratulations on finishing one phase of your life, and as you move onto college and the next steps during your road of life, always know that we are here, in your corner, believing in you, and believing you can do anything you set your mind and your will to.....Our love, hopes and dreams go with you, Steve- Carpe Diem - Seize the Day!!

To the Class of 2007,

Congratulations on your graduation from West Bridgewater Middle/Senior High School. Graduation is often referred to as the end of your education. However, it is not an end but a beginning, the beginning of your life beyond high school.

You have been encouraged, nurtured, and educated by your teachers and parents, shared many experiences in the classrooms, on the athletic fields, and in the community. Even though your interests and goals may differ, you will walk together into the future. The common sense and sound education you have gained at West Bridgewater Middle/Senior High School will provide you with the foundation to pursue your dreams.

My best wishes for your success and happiness.

Go out there and do something remarkable."
